Apartment and House Hunter's Checklist

Before you start looking for a place, get organized and decide: 1) how much you can afford to pay, 2) what your space and living needs are, 3) how long you plan on staying, and 4) what sort of area you want to live in.

When you find a potential unit be sure that the answers to these questions are covered in or added to your rental agreement. And don't leave without a copy of any amendments—it's worth a detour to the local copy center.

1. When is the unit available? If the move-in date is impractical for you, ask if it's negotiable so that you don't pay for unoccupied time. Is the apartment currently occupied? Is the lease agreement month-to-month or year-to-year?
2. How much are rent and deposit fees, and when is rent due? If mailed, does the rent need to be received or postmarked by the due date?
3. Is there a grace period after the monthly rental due date? When is your payment considered late, and is there a penalty charge for late payment?
4. What are the terms for renewing the lease? Can you move into an apartment you like better if one becomes vacant? What are the conditions if you have to move before the lease expires?
5. Are pets allowed?
6. Are any utilities included in your agreement?
7. Are you allowed to have roommates? What is the policy on subletting?
8. Can you paint the walls or make other decorating changes?
9. Will you be responsible for any property maintenance? Is there an office onsite, or a 24-hour phone number in case of an emergency?
10. Is the unit a legal dwelling?

Application Screening Fee

A landlord can charge you an application screening fee to cover his/her out-of-pocket expenses for obtaining and processing your application. The application fee cannot be more than the landlord's actual out-of-pocket costs, and effective in 2018, can never be more than $49.12. The landlord must give you an itemized receipt showing his/her expenses and must return any unused portion of the fee (for example, if the landlord did not check your references).

A Checklist of Things to Inspect

Here is a checklist of things you should look for when inspecting a rental property. All requirements mentioned are contained in the California Civil Code. Please slow down and look carefully before you sign on the dotted line.

- | | |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Structure (floors, walls, ceiling, foundation) | <input type="checkbox"/> Signs of insects, vermin, and rodents |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Plumbing | <input type="checkbox"/> Wiring and electricity |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Bathroom | <input type="checkbox"/> Fire safety |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Kitchen | <input type="checkbox"/> Trash and garbage receptacles |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Hot water | <input type="checkbox"/> General cleanliness of the area |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Heat | <input type="checkbox"/> Locks |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Light and ventilation | <input type="checkbox"/> Earthquake safety |

Get all Promises in Writing

Whatever promises the landlord makes, you should be aware that it is very common for vague, oral agreements to lead to misunderstanding, bitterness, and financial loss. The time to protect yourself is now. Get all promises in writing. Make two copies, one for the landlord and one for your own file.

The Landlord-Tenant Checklist

Another good self-protection device for both landlords and tenants involves taking an inventory of the condition of the premises at the time you move in, and then again when you move out. This means no more than making a brief written record of the condition of each room and having it signed by you and your landlord. Not only does the inventory give both an accurate record of the condition of the unit, but the act of making it provides a framework for communication and the resolution of potential disputes about security deposits when you move out. Contact the Housing Rights Center to receive a sample checklist. It is also a good idea to take pictures of your unit when you move in and move out.

If you have any questions about your rights and responsibilities as a tenant or landlord please contact the Housing Rights Center at (213) 387-8400 or (800) 477-5977 or e-mail us at info@housingrightscenter.org.

HISTORY

Developed by community stakeholders, including homeless people working together to house the estimated 25,000 homeless people who are disabled with mental health issues in Los Angeles.

Stakeholders removed the barriers to housing people:
SHARE! Collaborative Housing

- Affordable
- Same day availability
- History not an obstacle
- Healthy friends and relationships
- Addresses health and mental health issues
- Deals with substance use and addiction
- Positive social support
- Stigma free housing
- Housing for life!

With these tenants in mind, the first SHARE! Collaborative House opened for men on December 17, 2005 in Carson, CA.

Today, SHARE! has learned how to make Collaborative Housing even more efficient and successful, growing to nearly 100 houses in the program including the original house.

LACDA Site-Based Waiting Lists for Elderly Families

REGISTRATION DEADLINE EXTENDED

THROUGH JUNE 2022

The Los Angeles County Development Authority (LACDA) Public Housing Program has extended the registration period for our seven site-based wait lists (SBWLs) for elderly families through June 30, 2022, at 5:00 p.m. Please be advised, this is not the Section 8 Program.

An elderly family is a household whose head, co-head, spouse, or sole member is a person who is at least 62 years of age. It may include:

- two or more persons who are at least 62 years of age living together,
- or one or more persons who are at least 62 years of age living with one or more live-in aides.

Registrants may choose, based on eligibility, to register at one or all of the seven SBWLs. All applicants will be selected from each waiting list in order of admission preferences and then by date and time. If you are offered a unit from any one of the waiting lists that you have selected and you reject the unit, your name will be removed from all other selected SBWLs. It is therefore important that you only register for locations in which you are willing to reside.

The LACDA prohibits smoking on all public housing developments, except for a designated smoking area at the South Bay Gardens senior public housing development located at 230 E. 130th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90061.

You may register at <https://harp.lacda.org/ex/NewApp.aspx>.

If you have questions, you may call (626) 586-1845.

SANTA MONICA HOUSING DIVISION - BELOW MARKET RATE

APPLY at SANTAMONICAHOUSING.ORG.

The City of Santa Monica Housing Division's mission is to create new housing opportunities, preserve existing affordable housing, and help residents keep their housing in Santa Monica. Rather than providing a rental subsidy, this program offers apartments in the private sector at a rent that is lower than market rate. Households that meet the conditions listed below can apply for the BMH waitlist and will be contacted when apartments have vacancies that fit their income and household composition needs.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who Can Apply?

To be eligible for the BMH waitlist, applicants' total household income, before taxes, must not exceed the amounts listed below (effective May 1, 2020):

- 1-person household: $94,700; 2-person: $108,100; 3-person: $121,700; 4-person: $135,100

The waitlist is open to everyone who meets the income requirements, and priority is given to households that live or work in Santa Monica. To receive this preference, the head of household must:

- Live in Santa Monica
- Work in Santa Monica at least 25 hours per week (or did prior to March 1, 2020, but lost employment due to COVID-19-related reasons)
- Participate in an approved job training program in Santa Monica; or
- Have last worked at least 25 hours per week in Santa Monica and now receive unemployment, worker's compensation, vocational rehabilitation benefits, disability benefits, or retirement benefits from the City of Santa Monica.

SANTA MONICA HOUSING DIVISION – SECTION 8

APPLY TO THE SECTION 8 WAITLIST at <https://www.waitlistcheck.com/login>

If you need a reasonable accommodation to complete this application because of a disability, or if you require language assistance, please call and leave a message at (310) 458-8743.

Section 8, also known as the Housing Choice Voucher program, is a rental assistance program for low-income households. Eligible applicants may receive a voucher to pay for part of their rent.

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development \(HUD\) allocates Section 8 vouchers to housing authorities, like the Santa Monica Housing Authority (SMHA), to assist eligible applicants. SMHA is only allocated a limited number of vouchers and annual budget and must adhere to HUD's rules and regulations to determine who is eligible to receive a voucher.

According to HUD rules and regulations, local housing authorities may prioritize some applicants to reflect local housing needs and priorities. Everyone can apply for a voucher, but certain very low-income applicants will be given priority over others based on specific prioritization rules, listed below.

What does 'very low-income' mean?

- To be considered "very low-income," your total annual income, before taxes, must not exceed the following amounts, by household size:
 - 1-person household must have income of less than $41,400
 - 2-person household: $47,300; 3-person household: $53,200; 4-person household: $59,100
- To determine your household's income, add up the gross income (your income before taxes) of everyone that will be included on your application, plus any amount of money anyone in the household receives on a regular basis, like benefits, or regular financial assistance.

How is the Section 8 waitlist sorted?

SMHA has a system of priorities in place, known as 'preferences'.

FIRST PRIORITY: Applicants in emergency situations who have lost, or are at risk of losing, their home in Santa Monica because of one of the following are prioritized first on the Section 8 waitlist:

- a natural disaster (flood, fire, etc.)
- domestic violence (under the Violence Against Women Act)
- an eviction under the Ellis Act
- an owner-occupancy eviction
- owner-occupancy decontrol of a rent-controlled apartment that results in a rent of more than 40% of income

Continuum of Care and supportive housing graduates also receive first priority, as do applicants who were terminated from the Section 8 program due to funding shortfalls.

HOMELESSNESS PREVENTION PROGRAM

What is Homelessness Prevention?

Homelessness Prevention provides individuals and families who are at imminent risk of homelessness with:

- Financial assistance and housing stabilization services necessary to maintain their current housing; OR
- Find new housing to avoid becoming homeless and entering the emergency shelter system.

Who is eligible for the Homelessness Prevention Program?

- Homelessness Prevention may be available to persons who are currently residing within Los Angeles County, screened as having a high risk of becoming homeless AND meet at least one of the following criteria:
 - ✓ Experiencing a financial crisis and at imminent risk of becoming homeless within 30 days.
 - ✓ Have received written notice of intent to terminate tenancy from a landlord, property manager or lease holder.
 - ✓ Have received an Unlawful Detainer (court eviction hearing notice or court-ordered eviction).

What are the required Income eligibility guidelines for assistance?

- Must fall below the 50% Area Median Income (AMI)
- Formerly Homeless Section 8 holders with income up to 80% of Area Median Income (AMI)

Los Angeles County, CA
2019 AMI	Household Size
Area Median Income	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
0%-50% Income Limits Annual Household Income	$36,550	$41,800	$47,000	$52,200	$56,400	$60,600	$64,750	$68,950
51%-80% Income Limits Annual Household Income	$54,450	$66,800	$75,150	$83,500	$90,200	$96,900	$103,550	$110,250

CES ACCESS CENTER DIRECTORY

ACCESS ACROSS THE COUNTY

The Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority (LAHSA) and its funded agencies, in partnership with the City and County of Los Angeles, work to ensure that persons experiencing homelessness can continue to access critical services at Access and Navigation Centers to meet their basic needs, access emergency services, and obtain referrals to housing resources including those available through the LA County Coordinated Entry System (LA CES).

WHAT TO EXPECT AT AN ACCESS CENTER?

CES Access Centers are call-in or drop-in locations where persons experiencing homelessness can gain initial access to or continue contact with housing and supportive services available through LA CES. Access Centers can provide referrals to:

- Interim Housing programs for persons experiencing unsheltered homelessness;
- emergency services (domestic violence, emergency physical/mental healthcare) and other supportive services (mental health, workforce development, etc.); and
- to or, direct provision of, basic services such as food provision, storage, and hygiene services.

FIND AN ACCESS CENTER

Connect to an Access Center by following these 3 steps:

- 1 Identify your Service Planning Area (SPA), as shown on the map on page 2 of this document or via this ONLINE TOOL.
- 2 Find an Access Center based on the population that best describes you:
 - Adults (18 years old and over)
 - Families with children (dependent minors or adult dependent child)
 - *Youth (16-24 years old)
- 3 Contact an Access Center based on "Operation Hours" and related contact information.

Youth-aged families (where one head of household is 24 or younger) can be served in either the family system or the Youth system, depending on participant choice.*

For more information and referrals for all health and human services, please dial 2-1-1, call (800) 399-6993, or visit 211LA.org. The 2-1-1 phone line is open 24 hours, 7 days a week.
