Fair Housing:
It's the Law!

REQUEST A FREE FAIR HOUSING PRESENTATION

Mental Health Advocacy Services (MHAS) provides free community presentations focused on fair housing and disability rights. Presentations are conducted via Zoom throughout L.A. County and are available through June 30, 2022. MHAS also distributes a "Fair Housing Tip of the Month" e-newsletter with practical information about the fair housing rights of people with disabilities.

To schedule a presentation for your organization/group or to join our email list, call 213-389-2077 or send an email to fairhousing@mhas-la.org.

TOPICS COVERED

- Who is protected by fair housing laws?
- How is "disability" defined? What actions might be discriminatory?
- What makes accommodations "reasonable?"
- Where can I get help with COVID-19 rental debt?
- How do COVID-19 emergency protections help people with disabilities?

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Tenants with mental health disabilities
- People experiencing homelessness
- Mental health professionals
- Social workers, & case managers
- Housing & homelessness advocates
- Housing providers
- All are welcome!

ABOUT MHAS

Mental Health Advocacy Services is a legal services nonprofit organization whose mission is to protect and advance the legal rights of low-income adults and children with mental health disabilities and empower them to assert those rights in order to maximize their autonomy, achieve equity, and secure the resources they need to thrive.

These workshops are supported by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under FHIP Grant #FEOI20029. Any opinion, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in the presentation are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of HUD.
